

Check This Out - Chartered Accounting Practice

This successful Chartered Accountancy practice located in West Auckland has been providing friendly professional services for the last 24 years. With a large Asian client base this business will be most suitable for someone with the ability to communicate in Mandarin and/or Cantonese or have staff with that ability.

Accountancy practices such as this are highly sought after and here are some of the highlights:

- For sale is the whole business, not just the book. You get the furniture, the systems, the computers and the solid lease.
- Over 300 active clients and more committed for next year.
- More than just an accounting firm, this business is actively involved in client mentoring, xero processing, GST, right through to end of year financials preparation.
- A loyal and growing client base and excellent buying for a newly qualified accountant with the right language skills or as an add-on to an existing practice
- Returning $349,000 P.A.

Asking price $325K.
