The owner wants to retire NOW and fulfil his boating retirement plan! He says SELLmy contracting business! He has set up this North Shore based business for ease of operation with a competent manager and a long serving office person who knows the business so well she is more than capable of handling the staff and clients in the managers absence, as has been proven in the past. Reliable staff completes the team that uphold the reputation of the 35 year history in this business and satisfying the long term clients with theirGo Anywhere-Do Anything motto. However....should a new owner wish to expand and grow the business, larger contracts could be sought and marketing could be initiated as to date the business has relied solely on its solid reputation. There is an asset valuation of $1 million and the managed profit is circa $300,000 which of course would rise significantly should you wish to be a hands-on owner/operator.
