

Crafty Retail Store – North Shore

This successful, stable and long-standing retail store on Auckland's North Shore is now available to a new owner that has the passion and energy to delve into this crafty business and make it their own.

With beautiful products on offer and room to add plenty more varieties, along with creating an on-line presence and some digital marketing, this is a great time to be your own boss and take charge of your own destiny.

This store is brilliantly situated with a great road frontage in a sought-after location. There is constant foot traffic, loyal customers and the options to create even more shopping satisfaction to the public by way of additional products that are in demand and not currently sold in this area.

There is very little competition and an excellent supply chain is in place.

Asking price is $119,000 (plus GST if any) and includes an excess of $60,000 of stock.
