Build Your Future, Thriving Industry, PRICE REDUCED

Servicing a thriving home improvement industry this business has always been at the top of its game.

A long established and experienced staff of 3 can be trusted to complete the work to the highest standard allowing the vendor the luxury of performing his management role in the business in under 30 hours per week.

The vendor is in the envious position of been able to pick and choose the jobs most suited because of the quality and service history this business is renown for.

This business is homebased and predominately services the North Shore and lower Rodney areas by choice. A new owner could easily expand into other areas of Auckland as many enquiries from these areas are passed on.

The current owner is willing to offer a generous hand over and training period as in his words he is motivated to see this business succeed further in new ownership and will ensure the new vendor is comfortable in this role.
