Food Manufacturing in Sunny Nelson

Looking for a change, then the Nelson Tasman district may be the place for you.

Food Processing businesses are highly sought after and this successful operation processes, packages, and supplies both wholesale and retail customers.

Entering the market for the first time in circa 20 years, this business is generating a cash surplus of $370,000 and has capable and loyal staff in place. The retiring owners are now ready to hand over this well-established business with a generous transition period offered.

With a range of diverse revenue streams, which includes the supply of their own brand to supermarkets nationwide, the supply of products to various food businesses and exporting products to Australia, this business is in an excellent position whilst offering many opportunities for future growth.

Located in beautiful Nelson, operating Monday to Friday, this business presents the perfect opportunity for someone local looking to take on this exciting opportunity or for someone looking to relocate to one of New Zealand's most stunning regions to experience a better quality of life.
