

Real Estate Office – Reluctant but Necessary Sale

Located in a popular North Auckland suburb experiencing rapid population growth, this business is synonymous with delivering top quality results for buyers and sellers over a wide region. They are a definite identity in their area.

This well-established and well-known real estate office operating under a very popular Franchise focuses predominantly on mid to high range residential, commercial and land sales. They currently have circa $80 million of listings with another circa $30.0 million currently being negotiated to list. There is also a growing profitable rental management division.

If you hold a Licensed Real Estate Agent Certificate or Branch Manager's Certificate, have a sales background, are a good communicator, and like people, this business will be very easy for you, and it could be your opportunity for your next professional step to make a big difference in your career and lifestyle. If you don't hold an Agents Certificate, but have a sales background, that is also OK, but a Sales Agent licensee would need to be engaged.

This busy office should be considered very quickly. It is reluctantly being made available for sale due to genuine family circumstances. The Vendors are promising a very good handover and could even remain in the business for an agreed period as salespeople – maybe up to 6 months. This clearly demonstrates there are no gremlins in this business. There are also some new significant listing opportunities which can only be revealed under confidentiality.

Price: Circa $450K – Vendor is seeking expressions of interest and will negotiate a fair price.
