Successful Design Store $ Surplus Projected $240K

Located within a thriving Coromandel Peninsular hot-spot, this well-known and highly successful store has been offering a large range of flooring and interior design products for years.

The store is recognised in the area for supplying strong quality brands and their customer base includes commercial clients, key accounts, insurance companies and builders.

Some of the key highlights include -

- Great location
- Booming region with rapid growth
- Assets remaining in the business
- A full pipeline of on-going work
- Great knowledgeable team
- No industry experience needed

This opportunity might suit -

- A working owner seeking flexibility or
- An employee within the flooring industry wanting to step up to business ownership and walk into a business already setup that provides solid returns or
- Someone with an interior design background, whether this
