This Is a Dream Business But You'll Need To Move Fast

Finding profitable, home-based businesses with an established history offering part time hours to a working owner is like finding that needle in a haystack... and here it is!

All the hard work has been done, all you have to do is decide if you'd like to run this business as is which has suited the vendor for many years, or unleash the huge untapped potential - it's up to you.

What this business does is design a unique clothing line and then has it manufactured overseas. Product is shipped to the vendor's homebase where it is distributed to the NZ market, with a little to Australia.

Sounds simple, it is yet the barriers to entry are high and there are a number of other key elements that make this business so successful. The brands are extremely well received in the market and they should be - they have been around a long time and have a loyal following due to quality, durability and reliability.

This truly is a rare find in the clothing industry and offers stable profits - nearly $350K for FY 2022. With excellent
