

Pilates Studio – BIG Recurring Revenue Streams

Based in an affluent Auckland location, this large fitness & wellness studio has been operating successfully for over twenty years; you might even consider it the leading brand in its field.

People's fitness & wellness is now at the front of just about everyone's mind and this is where this business really shines. They offer a diversified service range, catering to different client's needs, budgets and abilities. There is also an online option.

The owners work a combined 20 hours in the business. Current staffing could allow owner input to be potentially reduced to 10 hours per week, mainly focused on business management.

Revenue has been growing over the last four years, only interrupted slightly by Covid. EBITDA has been incredibly consistent, mostly due to high recurring revenue streams. Average EBPITDA over the last four years is around $233,000 (before owners' income) with projected 2023 EBPITDA sitting slightly above this average.

As the new owner you can rest easy knowing this is a solidly
