Auckland Bookkeeping / Accounting Fees

A change in business direction for my bookkeeping / accountant client brings this small block of fees of $150,000 to the market. With a loyal client base, this is a good opportunity for a practitioner looking to buy a block of fees and tuck it into their current operation.

Currently operating out of offices on the North Shore, this is the sale of a client base only - the size of which doesn't come up very often.

If you would like to know more, please contact Greg and he will send you an NDA to sign followed by an Information Memorandum with more details on the practice.

Asking price $165,000.
