

Auckland Accountancy Fees $1.1m

Don't miss the opportunity to acquire a highly successful chartered accountancy practice situated in the sought-after North Shore of Auckland. The current owner, who has built a solid reputation over many years in the accountancy industry, is now ready to transition towards a more family-oriented focus, presenting this remarkable opportunity to the market.

This is your chance to seamlessly integrate and expand your existing practice by taking over this well-established business. By doing so, you can potentially grow your client base and bolster your financial success. Additionally, the option to relocate gives you the flexibility to shape this practice according to your vision.

The retiring owner is committed to ensuring a smooth transition. With a loyal client base, this practice guarantees a rewarding return on investment for any savvy practitioner.

If you're ready to take your practice to new heights, don't hesitate to get in touch. We will provide you with a confidentiality agreement to sign, followed by an Information Memorandum filled with all the essential details to help you seize this exciting opportunity.
