The NZ childcare industry has gone through a multitude of changes recently with the current labour government ending in an overall funding boost which has solidified the profitability of the centres. During the arduous process many vendors have approached me with a view to selling.

These are literally some of NZ's best childcare centres, new purpose built with strong EBIDTA numbers in mostly affluent suburbs.

Similar roll-ups from Australian companies has resulted in over-paying and over inflating the market. These vendors are realistic in value.

So NOW IS THE TIME to be looking further into this.
