

Thriving Chartered Accountancy Practice in Lower Hutt

Looking for an exceptional business opportunity? Discover this well-established, boutique chartered accountancy practice, located in Lower Hutt, Wellington. Boasting a loyal client base and a stellar reputation, this practice has experienced consistent growth over the years and is well placed to continue that trajectory into the future.

With a tight-knit and dedicated team, the practice has upheld a standard of excellence that sets it apart from the competition. Now, as the current vendor looks towards retirement, this presents an exciting chance for an ambitious individual to take the reins and continue the legacy of success.

One of the standout features of this practice is its flexible lease options. This means you have the freedom to choose the best arrangements that align with your vision and business strategy. There's even a possibility of moving the practice to a new location if desired.

Whether you are an accountant with a practice in Wellington or an accountant outside the capital looking to expand, this is a firm worth considering.
