Rural Accounting in the Waikato

Located in a well-known small town in the Waikato region, this accountancy practice offers exceptional flexibility for potential buyers. You can choose to acquire just the client fees and integrate them into your existing practice, or rent the current premises from the vendor, complete with staff, and continue operations from its established location.

A notable aspect of this practice is its high proportion of farming clients. Interested parties should have a solid understanding of accounting for farmers to effectively serve this client base.

The vendor is open to discussing both acquisition options with interested parties. Don't miss out on this unique opportunity to expand your practice in a thriving rural community.
