

Profitable Freight Business with Nationwide Reach & Strong Asset Base

With 20+ years of experience and a nationwide footprint, this well-established freight business is a prime opportunity for buyers seeking consistent earnings and a proven track record of success.

Operating Monday to Friday with minimal weekend requirements, the business is efficiently managed by a General Manager, allowing for smooth operations and steady, month-over-month profitability. The company plays a critical role in New Zealand's freight industry, servicing key inter-island and national routes that ensure a reliable revenue stream.

Recent market shifts have further strengthened its position, creating growth potential for a new owner looking to capitalise on an already highly profitable operation. The solid asset base enhances its long-term stability, making this an attractive option for investors or industry professionals seeking a well-run, scalable business.
