

North Shore ECE – Strategic Investment Opportunity

This 50-license childcare centre on the North Shore represents a sound investment for those seeking to acquire a well-established business with considerable potential for growth. Priced to sell, the centre offers a solid operational foundation and is ready for an experienced operator to revitalise and restore its profitability.

The centre operates with an affordable rent structure, supported by a long-term lease with favourable terms. Situated in a well-populated area, it serves the local community while also attracting families from nearby neighbourhoods, making it a reliable choice for parents.

Purpose-built facilities are a hallmark of this centre, with the infrastructure specifically designed to meet the needs of early childhood education. The centre's modern environment supports a high standard of care and education.

Boasting an experienced team, the educators bring both skill and dedication to their roles, ensuring a quality learning experience for the children. Their commitment lays a strong foundation for ongoing operational stability.
