West Auckland Childcare – Business & Property Opportunity

Are you an experienced ECE operator or investor looking for a rewarding turnaround opportunity? This well-maintained, nature-based centre offers an excellent chance to grow and enhance its potential.

Located in West Auckland, this centre is licensed for 38+ children, with current occupancy averaging around 57%, presenting a significant opportunity for growth. The property is relatively new, low maintenance, and thoughtfully designed to nurture young children. It features ample parking, spacious play areas, and quality resources, creating an ideal learning environment.

With the flexibility to lease the property on negotiable terms or purchase both the business and freehold, you can structure the investment to best suit your goals – ensuring stability for future growth.
