Panel & Paint Shop with OPTIONS at a GREAT PRICE

On the market for only the second time in 29 years, this Auckland business has been very good for the owners who purchased it about 15 years ago. It's now time for them to retire, spend some time golfing and motor-homing around New Zealand and enjoying the fruits of this successful business. This panel and paint shop has been, and still is, an icon in the Rodney area for over 40 years and is a front of mind business when it comes to panel and paint work. Located on a busy main road in securely leased premises, it is a high profile business that attracts good quality work from the wider Rodney region. The fully equipped panel and paint shops allow their qualified staff to complete their repairs to a very high standard and are fully supported by most NZ insurance companies. This business also comes complete with a fleet of loan cars which could allow the successful purchaser to consider opening a rental car division upon the successful application for a license, still leaving a good customer courtesy car fleet available. You do not have to be a qualified panel beater or painter to own this business. The vendors would very much like to see it sold to an enthusiastic person who is capable of putting their own stamp on the business, taking it forward and enjoying it as much as they have. Accordingly they have been very generous in their
