

PTE Offering Sought After Quals for Int. Students

Established 10 years ago, this Private Training Establishment has become highly respected in their field. Their great reputation in this secure business sector has set a benchmark by delivering highly sought after qualifications for international students, allowing them to gain entry into the workforce where demand is high. These qualifications are delivered by excellent, competent tutors who are backed up fully by a strong administration / marketing team. The business is situated in a great inner-city location, very convenient to all major bus routes and central city accommodation. *The owner states that the annual revenue exceeded $2.4 million in the 2015 year and provided a cash surplus of $290,000 (+). There are high barriers to entry to this 1st time on the market business, which is very reluctantly now offered for sale due to the owners very genuine family circumstances. The sale includes comprehensive teaching resources to maintain the high education standards this PTE is recognised for. Asking Price: $895,000. In order to comply with the Financial Markets Authority Act 2013, no offers or enquiries below $750,000 will be accepted or entertained. Please also note that the sale of this institute is being treated with the highest level of confidentiality, so to find out more you will need to submit an online Confidentiality Agreement by visiting www.barkerbusiness.co.nz and registering your
